SPRING GOODS

An Ordinance.

City Hall, Paris, Ky.,
April 14, 1910.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAYOR AND BOARD OF COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PARIS:

1. That no automobile, motor car, motor cycle or other vehicle propelled by steam or gasoline or electric power shall be run or propelled upon the streets, alleys, or ways of the City of Paris at a higher rate of speed than eight miles per hour, and when going around any corners or passing any intersection of streets the rate of speed shall be reduced to not exceeding five (5) miles an hour.

2. That each owner of any machine or car as mentioned in section 1 of this ordinance shall annually pay to the City Collector of the City of Paris a registry fee of five dollars ($5) and said collector shall furnish to the owner or operator of every automobile or other motor vehicle described in section 1 which shall be run or propelled upon any street or alley of the said City of Paris an aluminum number of not less than three inches in height, which shall be placed upon a plate and securely attached to such vehicle so as to be plainly visible from the rear thereof, and the said city collector shall keep a record of every number so issued as aforesaid, together with the name and address of the person to whom issued. No automobile or motor vehicle as aforesaid shall be run or propelled upon any street, alley or way of the said city without having conspicuously displayed thereon the number so issued to the owner or operator thereof and attached to said machine as herein provided, but the foregoing requirements shall not apply to any non-residents of Bourbon county, who merely passes through said city in an automobile or motor vehicle.

3. No such automobile or other motor vehicle, as described in section 1, shall be run or propelled upon any of the streets, alleys or ways of the city of Paris from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise without having and keeping lighted one or more lamps or lanterns, which shall be attached to said vehicle so as to be free from obstruction by other parts thereof, and show a white light visible for a reasonable distance in front, and a red light visible for a reasonable distance in the rear.

4. No automobile or other motor vehicle, as described in section 1, shall be propelled or run upon any of the streets, alleys, or ways of the city of Paris without being equipped and supplied with a horn.

5. No part of the machinery of any automobile or other motor vehicle as described in section 1 shall be left running while said vehicle is standing without an attendant, upon any of the streets or alleys or ways of the city of Paris.

6. No person shall tamper with any automobile or other motor vehicle as described in section 1 while the same is standing upon any of the streets, alleys or ways of the city of Paris except with the permission of the person running or propelling or owning the same.

7. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed as to apply to the operating or running of any trains or cars upon street railways or steam railroads of the city of Paris.

8. All persons, firms, or corporations having a permanent location in this city, who shall be prepared to keep, repair and furnish supplies for automobiles, shall, within the meaning of this ordinance be known as keepers of a garage, and the person, firm or corporation conducting such garage shall pay an annual license of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and every person, firm or corporation conducting such garage shall have the right to hire and rent automobiles without an additional license except the payment of one dollar to the city for a registry tag, which shall be furnished by the city collector as provided in section 2 of this ordinance.

9. Any person firm or corporation other than keepers of a garage who hire, carry passengers or run such machines shall pay an annual license of ten dollars ($10.00) upon each machine, and upon payment of such license, without additional cost, the city collector shall furnish registry tags as provide in section 2 of this ordinance.

10. All moneys derived from the payment of the licenses provided for by this ordinance of the city of Paris, shall when collected, become a part of and be credited to the general expense fund of the city of Paris, and shall be used for no other purpose.

11. All persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance other than the provision regulating the taking out of license, shall be fined not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each offense, and the owners of every automobile or other motor vehicle as described in section 1 shall be liable jointly with the person using, running or propelling same in violation of the provisions of this ordinance, in all cases where said automobile or other motor vehicle is taken from the possession of the owner without his knowledge or consent. And any person failing to take out and pay the license required by this ordinance shall be fined in any sum not to exceed the amount of the license.

12. All ordinances and portions of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

13. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage and approval and publication, as required by law.

J. T. HINTON,
Mayor.

An Ordinance.

City Hall, Paris, Ky., April 14, 1910.
BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAYOR AND BOARD OF COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PARIS:

1. That no license shall be issued for the sale of any kind of vinous, spirituous or malt liquors until the applicant for such license shall have executed bond to the City of Paris in the penal sum of $250, with surety approved by the Mayor, conditioned not to keep a disorderly house, not to sell any liquor to habitual drunkards or to minors except upon the written order of the parent or guardian of such minor, and not to permit in the said house in which the said liquor or liquors are sold gambling or disorderly conduct and not to keep open the said place of business or permit therein the sale of any kind of vinous, spirituous or malt liquors on Sundays or between eleven o'clock p. m. and five o'clock in the morning, and to pay any and all fines which may be inflicted upon the owner of said place of business for violating any ordinance or amendment to any ordinance relating thereto. Any violation of the conditions of said bond shall subject the offender to a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00) for each offense, as has heretofore been provided by ordinances of the City of Paris; as well as to a revocation of his license, as is hereinafter provided.

2. Every license issued by the said City of Paris for the sale of any kind of vinous, spirituous or malt liquors, shall be issued with the distinct agreement, understanding and condition that the same shall be revoked by the Mayor for the violation of any of the ordinances or amendments to ordinances relating to the management and government and control of saloons or such other places of business that may sell any of the said liquors; or for a violation of any of the conditions of the bond, hereinafter set out. If the Mayor shall be informed by any citizen of the City of Paris under oath, or by the written statement of any police officer that any of the above provisions are being violated by any person, firm, or corporation, or by any employee of which said person, firm or corporation may be responsible, it shall be the duty of the said Mayor to immediately notify the said person, firm or corporation so offending to whom license has been issued, to appear at his office within forty-eight hours, at a time to be designated in said notice, and show cause under oath, why such license shall not be revoked. If at said hearing the Mayor shall be satisfied from the evidence of the guilt of such offender, or if it shall be made to appear to him that such offender has been convicted in a court having competent jurisdiction, for the violation of any of the provisions aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Mayor to revoke said license immediately. If a license be revoked, no new license shall be granted, except upon the payment of the full amount required for an annual license.

J. T. HINTON, Mayor.
